

A warm beginning to first day at Packtech 2014, Mumbai - India

Clearpack is exhibiting at Packtech 2014, showcasing brands like Apsol, Involvo, Torq and Netfill. The first day of the show was a warm beginning to the exhibition, with many visitors making it a point to spend time at understanding our offerings and getting a feel of our solutions.

Clearpack is showcasing its entire range of products for Primary Packaging, Secondary Packaging, Case Packing & Shrink Wrapping, Palletizing and Complete turnkey solutions. We look forward to hosting many more visitors over the course of the next two days.
