

Effytec is now Clearpack's official partner for pouch solution

Clearpack is happy to announce its association with EFFYTEC, a company leader in the technology and manufacturing of horizontal pouch machinery, for packaging all type of products from different sectors in sachets and pouches: food, cosmetics, chemicals, pharma and other applications.

The cumulative experience of our local project management teams supported by specialized expertise of Effytec in flexible packaging will enables us to provide the optimum solution for each client with the highest performance and highest quality and innovative packaging.